FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BRAND NEW SCULPTURE MAGAZINE TO COVER PACIFIC NORTHWEST REGION

SculpturesPacific will be a free online magazine focusing on sculpture artists from the Pacific Northwest. The e-zine will feature engaging and informative articles on sculptors and their work, public art programs, new techniques, career aspects, book reviews, and more. SculpturesPacific will be a great source for what is happening with sculpture in the Pacific Northwest.

With a footprint that cover sculptors and sculptural practices from Oregon to Washington and British Columbia to Manitoba, SculpturesPacific informs sculptors, galleries, art collectors, academics and art students on what is current. Inside the free ezine we will bring the best of what our area has to offer. Keep informed by following contemporary and traditional sculpture practices. The e-zine will also feature the ability to contain short video clips on our subject matter.

Okanagan based sculptor Jock Hildebrand (Jock Hildebrand Arts Portal Inc.) is teaming up with Accelerate Communications Group of West Kelowna to publish SculpturesPacific Magazine.

Each issue of SculpturesPacific will be delivered electronically to subscribers in the Pacific Northwest, North America and abroad. Additionally, each issue will be showcased through the SculpturesPacific website (www.sculpturespacific.com).

Accelerate Communications Group, formed by Sylvia Hermans and Warren Brock, is an Okanagan based publishing firm, delivering an extensive portfolio of quality publications for local, national, and international audiences. Current publications include YLW Connection (Okanagan Air Traveller Magazine) and Go Camping BC.

Artist Jock Hildebrand, editor of SculpturesPacific, is known internationally primarily for his stone and bronze sculptures, spanning a 30+ year career. His extensive experience as an artist, as well as his academic background in art history informs and inspires many of his works.

SculpturesPacific Magazine will be launched in the Summer of 2010.
